

Col. (AF) / Commander Florin TUDOR graduated from the the Military School of Aviation Officers "Aurel Vlaicu", class of 1984 and the "Carol I" National Defense University in 1992.

During 1998-1999 he attended the Air Force Command and Staff College, Maxwell AFB, Alabama, USA.

He completed his professional experience by being posted to fill positions within UN missions and NATO Commands as operations and/or training and doctrine jobs, from Section Head up to Division Head level.

He also served as deputy commander of the Air Force Application School, and head of the Office of Operations and Instruction at Romanian Air Force Staff.

Currently his is the Director of Executive Structure of National Military Aeronautical Authority and his responsibilities include setting regulations for Operational Air Traffic and Air Traffic Management as MoND representative to different forum like the Romanian Civil Aviation Authority, ICAO, NATO, EUROCONTROL, European Defence Agency and European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) for military aviation regulatory matters and MoND link with Industry for design, manufacturing, maintenance, modification and certification standards for military airframes.