

Mr. Augustin Lupu

Chairman, UVS Romania Association

Romania

Mr. Lupu is also an integration engineer for multinational private companies: testing for unmanned vehicles integration, QA and production supervising; field support for deployed UAVs – technical support (maintenance and repairs for UAV systems), training and documentation specialist

Relevant for UAV domain, we mention his engineer degree in automation, computers and movement control, materials knowledge and processing experience, practical electronics knowledge and experience, programming knowledge and experience, video processing and CAD/CAM knowledge, media and publication experience (currently chief editor for the Romanian unmanned magazine DRONELE.RO)