

COL (Air Force) Florin BĂLAN currently serves as Director Military Aeronautical Authority within the Air Force Staff in Bucharest. In this capacity he is responsible for the regulation in the field of military aeronautics, for the certification of military aeronautical personnel, military aeronautical engineering, infrastructure and military aeronautical agents and for the supervision of certifications.

COL (Air Force) Florin BĂLAN Graduated in On-Board Appliances and Equipment at The Military Institute of Aviation „AUREL VLAICU”, Boboc, Buzau, and became an aviation officer. After graduation he was appointed as military air traffic controller from 1996 to 2007 in the Air Force. Since 2007 to 2011 he was appointed as military air traffic controller in the Naval Forces and from 2011 to 2014 he was appointed back to the Air Force.

In 2016 he graduated Military Science, Conduct of Military Actions, Military Art, Management at the The National University of Defense "Carol I", Bucharest. After graduation he was appointed as Chief of Operations at the 90th Airlift Base in Otopeni.

From 2017, he was promoted as Chief of Staff at the 90th Airlift Base in Otopeni.

COL (Air Force) Florin BĂLAN graduated courses of specialization such as „Initiation in regional air traffic control”, „Air traffic control”, „Communication and public relations course for commanders” and career courses such as „Advanced Course for Aviation Officers” and „Staff Course”.