

Col Cornel Argint has graduated from the Military Technical Academy in Bucharest and the Hyperion University, Bucharest, with a bachelor's degree, two master's and a PhD.

He is specialized in electronic warfare and NATO affairs, having graduated from the Radar System course at the Delft University of Technology, the NATO Air Electronic Warfare Advanced Course at Air Force Academy, Lagerlechfeld, Germany and the Introduction to NATO course, at National Defence University, Bucharest.

Mr Argint also has experience in the cyber dimension, having graduated from 2015 to 2022 with 4 courses related to Cyber Immersion Training and Exercises, Cyber Defence Command, Terrorist Use of Cyberspace, and Cyber Crime Investigation in multiple countries, such as the USA, Romania and Turkey. Mr Argint is currently enrolled in the National Security Problems ongoing course, at National Defence University, Bucharest.

From 2000 to 2023 Mr Argint worked as an IT&C expert and manager at the Ministry of Defense, and from 2012 he is a lecturer at the Military Technical Academy, National Defence University, and Spiru Haret University. Mr Cornel Argint speaks English and French.