

As a security specialist, Frédéric Marchal served the security forces of the French Ministry of Interior for 30 years.

He also collaborated with the Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs, providing his expertise on the peripheral, perimeter and volumetric protection of French diplomatic premises abroad.

Head of Security for the French Embassy in Georgia (2009-2013) and more recently for the French Embassies in Romania and Moldova (2018-2022), he is now the Cerbair representative for the Eastern Europe zone, specialized on counter UAS with RF detection and neutralisation.